

Valentines' School of Telegraphy!

Offers to all who are desirous of acquiring a profitable trade, thorough instruction, and through its connections with RAILROADS and TELEGRAPH COMPANIES, immediate employment for its graduates, where promotion is only limited by merit. The following letter is from a former resident of Lima, Rock county. Since it was written we have sent Mr. Teatsborn about thirty more operators.

GREEN BAY, WINONA & ST. PAUL RAILROAD
Train Dispatcher's Office,
GREEN BAY WIS. SEPT. 22, 1885.

Valentine Brox: DEAR SIRS: In reply to yours of the 16th inst., would say that during the past six years this company has employed about 150 of your graduates. About thirty-five of them are now in its employ as agents and operators giving good satisfaction, the others have left us at different times except positions on other railroads. We shall continue to send to you for operators when ever we need them. In view of the certain of a great revival of railroad building in 1938, I know of no business which offers equal opportunities for advancement. Being myself a graduate of your school, I heartily recommend it to all who may wish to learn telegraphy.

Yours truly,
H. E. TEETSCHORN, Chief Train Dispatcher.

An examination of our school will convince one that our course of instruction is far more valuable than a commercial college course, because we teach our students a trade and then place where they have every opportunity to work their way upward. We have supplied more than a thousand operators for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and many more for different Railroad Companies. Call and see us or write for our circulars.

A WINTER SCENE.

The single man doth now appear with overcoat upon his back; The married man looks sad and drear while his wife gets into her beautiful gown.

—Merchant Traveler.

—Choral Union to-night.

—Attend the fair at the Guard's Armory.

The district attorney's office is now worth one thousand dollars a year.

—Mrs. Margaret Murphy, mother of City Treasurer Murphy, is seriously ill.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

—The board of supervisors will probably conclude their labor by to-morrow afternoon and adjourn until January.

—According to advices from Boston the man who stole upon an apple pie at this season of the year shows the correct fall style.

—Mrs. J. B. Day will contribute to the program at the Sister's Charity fair to-morrow evening at half past eight. Admission only ten cents.

—The crossing between the stores of Bull & Farnsworth and T. J. Zeigler is muddily enough to make that part of the city seem quite metropolitan.

—Bobcats coming down from the places where railroad men are blasting rock have made Janesville people think of earthquakes or Fourth of July.

—The re-election of Mr. L. M. Nelson, as janitor of the court house, gives universal satisfaction, especially among the regular occupants of the building.

—A majority of the Janesville drug clerks are in Milwaukee to day going through the agonies of an examination before the Board of Pharmacy.

—Badger Council No. 223, Royal Arcanum, assemble in regular semi-monthly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Lappin block, East Milwaukee street.

—Texas Sittings: Fashionable young lady—"If I give you some money you will promise me to go and take a bath?"

Beggar—"A bath! And is it a mermaid that you take me for?"

—Mrs. Stacy will give a bible reading at the children's meeting at the Baptist church to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock. All children are cordially invited and requested to bring their bibles.

—The efforts to prevent the running of street cars, the issuing of papers or the selling of milk on Sunday in La Crosse has failed. The barber shops and saloons have been decided not to be necessities on that day and will therefore be closed.

—At the bible reading last evening, Mrs. Stacy took up "God's preparation of the world for the advent." The subject was divided into four heads, the political preparation, the preparation through dispersion, the preparation through prophecy and the coming of the herald.

—An organization for the winter with John Groesbeck as president and Maggie Mount as secretary, has been made by the high school class of '97. The meetings are to be held once every two weeks and will be of a combined literary and social nature.

—The jury in the case of Sanford against Wilcox in the circuit court, returned this morning unable to agree. As there were no cases set until Monday, the judicial calendar will be called, Judge Bennett discharged the jury for the remainder of the week.

—No less successful was the second night of the Catholic fair than the first. The attendance was good and the display of fancy articles large. Affairs under the auspices of the St. Joseph's Convent are seldom failures but their latest enterprise is being unusually well patronized.

—In the municipal court this afternoon the arguments in the trial of Anderson Dixon on a charge of assault and battery are being made and the case will probably go to the jury to-night. The jury consists of George Woodruff, H. Sandow, P. B. Leiby, Nels Carlson, James Helms and John Staunton.

—In the Chicago papers of to-day is a notice of the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Gillipie, which occurred at her home in that city yesterday. The funeral services will be held to-morrow at half past ten o'clock. Mrs. Gillipie had many friends in this city and the tidings of her death will carry with them much of sadness.

—We have received from the publishers, Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago, their "Pocket Atlas of the World," which contains in small space, valuable information on almost every conceivable topic relating to the geography, physical features and commercial progress of the world. It contains about two hundred pages and the price is fixed at twenty-five cents.

—Mr. E. C. Johnson of the Park Hotel received the sad news this morning of the death of his brother-in-law Mr. E. L. North, of Monroe, Mr. North will be remembered as an old Rock county man who was a son of Mr. James North, of Johnston, where he resided until some six years ago, when he went to Monroe. His death was caused by apoplexy.

—Mr. Frederick A. Leland, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leland, of this city, who for years has been connected with the wholesale house of A. G. Spaulding & Brothers, dealers in sporting goods, Chicago, has associated with Mr. Charles C. Waring, and opened a similar establishment at Minneapolis. Mr. Leland's many friends in Janesville will wish him success in his new field.

—"Five Points" was well represented at the pipe this morning, when James Murray, the burglar who attempted to go through William Canary's house, started on his trip to Waupun. His sentence of four years and six months, had anything but a tranquillizing effect upon him, for his remarks concerning Rock county justice were emphatic and intense.
